

timony has all been shattered and so forth and so on, I said, "Well, as long as I know Henry Stevens, although he is not a friend of mine or anything like that," so I said, "I will tell them what I know." That is the reason I came around Saturday evening and told Mr. Stevens, and his wife, and yourself.

Q It may be necessary for us to call on you. A. If I can be of any service naturally I will be willing and glad to come over and do what I can.

Q What is your address? A. 3929 Lancaster Avenue, Philadelphia.

Q And your telephone number? A. Evergreen 2660, and any time between the hours of half-past seven and six I or someone can be reached there. I was going to say, you asked me about my residence. You know, those of us that vote here claim this as residence, and I vote and have voted here for about twenty years, I guess, and the rest of the time I am in Philadelphia.
